

How Do I Hear God?

How can I have a deep and meaningful relationship with God?

How do I hear God?

Sometimes hearing God isn't learning something new. It's remembering something true.

John 16:7(NIV): "But very truly I tell you, it is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you."

John 14:17(NIV): "... the Spirit of truth... you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you."

John 14:26(NIV): "But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you."

John 16:12-15(ESV): "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for He will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore, I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

John 4:25, 29(NASB): "The woman said to Him, 'I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ); when that One comes, He will declare all things to us'... 'Come, see a Man who told me all the things that I have done...'"

The Spirit doesn't freelance. The Spirit keeps pointing us back to Jesus.

John 2:22(CEB): "After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered what he had said, and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken."

John 12:16(CEB): "His disciples didn't understand these things at first. After he was glorified, they remembered that these things had been written about him..."

John 16:4(CEB): "But I have said these things to you so that when their time comes, you will remember that I told you about them."

"Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it." George Santayana

The ONE thing we learn from history is, we don't _____.

Luke 4:1(NIV): "Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness."

Deuteronomy 8:2, 3(NIV): "Remember how the Lord your God led you all the way in the wilderness these forty years... to teach you that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord."
