

10/31/2021 "Your Demons"

1. Is the phrase, "The apple doesn't far fall from the tree", usually a positive or negative sentiment?
2. Has that phrase ever been said of you? What was the context?
3. Read Genesis 11:1-9. What stands out to you from this passage?
4. Genesis 1-11 has been about the nature of humanity. Each generation seems stuck in a pattern of doing for themselves and taking for themselves. How does the Tower of Babel repeat this theme?
5. When you think about your family history, what things seem to be recurring challenges or flaws?
6. What things can often break the cycle of human nature and "the apple doesn't fall far from the tree"?
7. Read John 8:32-36. Why do you think "the Jews" (descendants of Abraham) answered Jesus the way they did?
8. What freedom does Jesus speak of in these verses? (see also Galatians 5:13-17; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Luke 4:18-21)
9. Based on John 8:32-36, what things lead to this freedom?
10. Where do you feel trapped, locked in fate or your family history?
11. Based on Sunday's message and the passages you've read, what do you think is the starting point for finding freedom?
12. How can you tell or show others that their fate is not fixed?
