

reboot

05/15/2022 Colossians 1:21-23

1. What stood out to you from this week's message? Why?
2. Read Colossians 1:21-23. What transformation is described in these verses?
3. How does this transformation relate to the key verse for this series, "Jesus has rescued us from dark powers" (Colossians 1:13)?
4. How do these verses relate to the supremacy of Jesus described in Colossians 1:15-20? In other words, why was it important for Paul to present Jesus' supremacy before writing Colossians 1:21-23?
5. What two words describe our relationship with God before and after Jesus' work on the cross? What do these two words mean?
6. Read Romans 5:1-11. What commonalities do you notice between these verses and what has been discussed so far in Colossians 1?
7. Do you feel that Paul's description of us being "alienated," "ungodly," or "enemies" of God is appropriate? Why or why not?
8. How do we move from being "alienated" to "reconciled"? What has God done and what role do you have?
9. In each of these passages, Paul connects reconciliation with endurance/steadfast. Why do you think both of these are important for our relationship with Jesus?
10. When you think about your relationship with God, what does reconciliation look like? What transformation has taken place and what still needs to take place?
11. How do these passages impact your faith and the way you follow Jesus?