

Better Together

Hebrews 10:23–25: 2³ Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. 2⁴ And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, 2⁵ not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

"...encouraging one another."

Galatians 6:2: "Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."

"Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds."

Proverbs 17:9: "Whoever would foster love covers over an offense, but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends."

Proverbs 27:17: "As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another."

Isolation costs support.

Isolation costs growth.

Isolation costs joy.

Isolation costs healing.

When You Lead a Group...

- You learn to depend on God, not yourself
- You grow deeper in Scripture
- Your faith grows as you watch God change lives
- You discover where God is still shaping you
- You love and serve more deeply
- You go from being disciplined to making disciples
- You become proof that God uses ordinary people
