Discussion Questions

1. Read Romans 1:1-17. What stands out to you from these verses?
2. Write down, in your own words, your definition of “gospel”? Share your definition.
3. To whom does the “gospel” refer to? What do these verses tell us about this person? (Romans 1:1-6)
4. What purpose or impact does this message of the Gospel have on those who wish to follow God? (Romans 1:16-17; cf. Colossians 1:3-13)
5. Why do you think Paul would have to say that he is not ashamed of the gospel?
6. What challenged you most from Sunday’s message? Why?
7. What types of events tend to be life changing? Is there an event that you have experienced that you would point back to and say “that was a defining moment in my life”?

8. This series is titled, "I'm out to change my world." If you could see one thing change in your personal life, what would that be?

9. The gospel is not only personal, but also collective. What impact would you like to see the gospel have on the community in which you are a part of?

10. Faith is often associated with the gospel. How would you describe your current level of faith in Jesus or the gospel? "I'm not sure I believe in God", "Curious", "New to faith", "Believe in Jesus", "Committed", etc.

11. How does faith in the gospel impact your personal life and the community to which you are a part? Or if you're not at the point of faith yet, what impact might you expect it to make?

12. What would you like to see happen in your relationships with God and this community over this group session?

Prayers

Take a moment and write out your prayer of what you'd like to see God do in your life over this group session.
