

05/17/2015

INTRODUCTION

The humorous movie, Big Hero 6, provides a powerful window into the importance and power of forgiveness. Putting the welfare of others first, not seeking revenge and extending grace correlate wonderfully with the message of Jesus.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Which movie clip from Sunday made the biggest impact for you?

Read Colossians 3:12-17
2. What is the motivation or basis for Paul's teaching to love and forgive in this passage?
3. Which characteristics or descriptions in this passage are most appealing? Most challenging?
4. Why are these important aspects of the Christian faith?
5. What are some ways that you have actively sought to turn from anger and revenge to seeking forgiveness and pursuing love?
6. Why do you often feel the need to get revenge? What drives your actions?
7. Who in your life can you look to that has modeled or demonstrated the principles discussed on Sunday?
8. Is there someone in your life that you need to extend grace and forgiveness to? If so, brainstorm some steps that might help you in this process.

MOVING FORWARD

Jesus' message is one of forgiveness—both in what he provides for us and, as recipients, what we should extend to others. To forgive is to be like Christ. Pray this week that in your relationships you may be more Christ-like.