

Who Are You?

Finding the true you.

03/01/2020 "A Different Kind of Food"

1. What was the most compelling or challenging part of Sunday's message? Why?
2. Taking stock of your life, based on your actions, what things rank as most important in your life?
3. Read John 4:27-42 aloud as a group. What do you discover about Jesus from this passage?
4. What is the main message of John 4:27-42? Why does this message matter?
5. What realization does the Samaritan woman have? What does it cause her to do?
6. The Samaritan woman shares her story—i.e. testimony. What did that consist of? What comes to mind as you think of your testimony?
7. Jesus says to his disciples, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about". What is Jesus referring to?
8. Her story shapes lives. What is your role in shaping lives? (John 4:31-34)
9. The woman at the well actively engages others about her experience. Have you ever felt this compelled when it comes to your relationship with God?
10. Has serving impacted your life? If so, how?
11. What does it look like to fill your jar versus leaving your jar? What did Derek mean by this?
12. How can you take a step this week to leave your jar and pour out living water for others?
