

All I Want For Christmas Is Hope

Biblical hope is about EXPECTATION.

Biblical hope is about trusting a PROMISE.

There is a direct correlation between your capacity to HOPE and the trustworthiness of the PROMISER.

Luke 2:25-26: There was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Messiah.

Righteous: dikaios: innocent, holy, just, one who acts alike to all, impartial, kind

Devout: eulabes: reverent, wise, circumspect

Genesis 1:28 "And God blessed them..." Blessed = baw-rak (a bent knee)

You will not find a promiser more trustworthy than Jesus the Christ.
