

Faith in the Real World

March 3rd

Discussion Questions

1. Read Romans 4:1-25. Summarize the flow of Paul's argument in two to three sentences.
2. What themes do you see as most important in these verses? Why?
3. How do these verses illustrate and support the preceding section in Romans 3:21-31?
4. Our perspectives regularly change. Can you think of moments in your life that changed your perspective of God? What was life like before and after?
5. Is there a difference between faith and faithfulness? If so, how would you describe it?
6. What does Paul mean by "faith"?
7. How do you know when you have faith? What does it mean to place your faith in Jesus?

8. When have you gone through some of the ups and downs of faith? How did you respond to them?

9. Have you responded to God's faithfulness? If not, what would it take for you to respond?

10. If you have responded in faith to God's faithfulness, can you identify moments in your walk where your focus shifted to your own faithfulness verse God's faithfulness?

11. When you think of God's faithfulness what comes to mind?

12. Where have you seen God's faithfulness in the past? What impact has that had?

13. What promises are you trusting God's faithfulness for?

Prayers

Take a moment and write out your response to God's faithfulness in Romans 4. How will this new focus create change this week?
