

08/15/2021 "Stay Thirsty"

1. What are you most curious about right now? Is there a hobby, topic, relationship, aspect of work or something else that has you curious?
2. When you think about your faith, what has you the most curious?
3. Thinking of your everyday conversations, which do you tend to do more of--make statements or ask questions?
4. Read Genesis 1:1-13. As you read, identify ways in which God moves things from Chaos to Order.
5. What is the story of Genesis 1 trying to direct our attention towards?
6. Is there anything you remember or have heard about Genesis 1 (sermons, stories, books) that you do not see in the text? (In other words, "is something missing?")
7. If "create", in Hebrew bara, does not refer to creating something out of nothing—material origins—how does this impact our reading of Genesis 1?
8. How is reading the Bible through a scientific lens in unnatural to the text?
9. What questions do you have about Genesis 1:1-13? As a group, write them down and submit them at bit.ly/gccaskquestions.
10. Are there questions or painful experiences that create obstacles to your faith when it comes to reading or accepting the bible?
11. Was there anything else that stood out to you or challenged your thinking from Sunday's message? Why?
