Discussion Questions

1. How would you summarize Sunday's message? What challenged you most?
2. Read James 1:19-27. What challenges does this passage give to those who want to follow Jesus—things to avoid and things to pursue?
3. When it comes to the Christianity, what is the prerequisite for "doing"?
4. James talks about a "law that gives freedom". How can "law" and "freedom" exist in the same sentence?
5. When have you seen or experienced something restrictive bring a positive result?
6. When it comes to faith, how are the actions "hearing" and "doing" different? How are they related?
7. There is often a tension between information and application. What helps something transcend mere information and move us to application?
8. What do you already know you need to do, that you need to do?

What would it take for you to do it?

What's holding you back?
