

A New Thing

Isaiah 43:18–19: “Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.”

Scripture

Read the passage slowly and write it out. Notice words or phrases that stand out.

Observation

Ask what the passage is saying. What does it reveal about God, His character, or His promises?

Application

Reflect on how the Scripture applies to your life today. What might God be inviting you to do, release, or trust.

Prayer

Turn your reflections into prayer. Thank God, ask for guidance, and respond to what He has shown you.
